Home Run Wins Game.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 25.—Cincinnati shut out Philadelphia today, 1 to 0, in a pitchers' battle. The only run of the game was scored on a home run drive by Hobbs at the fifth.

Close One at New York.
NEW YORK, May 25.—Raymond outpitched Salley by a slight margin today and New York defeated St. Louis 1 to 0. The local pitcher struck out nine men, fanning Bresnahan with the bases full in the eighth inning.

Ninth Straight Defeat.
BOSTON, MASS., May 25.—McCarthy held Pittsburgh to five hits today, but two were home runs, and these, with Boston's errors, enabled the visitors to win from the locals, 6 to 2, making Boston's ninth straight defeat.

Brooklyn Out Again.
BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 25.—Brooklyn came out from behind again today and tied the Chicago's, but lost by the same score as yesterday, 4 to 3.

BALL PLAYER ACCUSED.
Member of Roanoke League Team Will Be Taken to Philadelphia.
ROANOKE, VA., May 25.—Detectives J. J. Hague and William H. Tyson, of Philadelphia, arrived here today with a requisition for George Nield, one of the players of the Roanoke baseball club.

Nield is charged with committing an assault on Ellen Coates, a young girl of Philadelphia, April 4. W. C. Tague was with him at the time and is under arrest in Philadelphia.

Favorite Wins at Latonia.
(By Associated Press.)
LATONIA, OHIO, May 25.—Alambala, the favorite in the betting, easily won the Latonia derby over a muddy track by six lengths. The Peer finished second, ten lengths in front of Plate Glass, the only other starter in the race.

Despised Outsider Wins.
(By Associated Press.)
BELMONT PARK, N. Y., May 25.—Mary Davis, a despised outsider in the betting, easily won the Claremont handicap here today. The favorite Jack Atkin finished third. Demand broke in front and led to the final furlong where Mary Davis came strongly on the rail and won by two lengths. Demand beat Jack Atkin half a length for the place.

OF INTEREST TO MOTORISTS.

Literary Shrines That Attract the Modern Pilgrim Who Travels in an Auto.

All manner of men and women are worshippers at literary shrines, even those of popular modern deities. Pierre Loti's house and that of Edmond Rostand are known of all winter drives of passage at Biarritz, and Americans from all the states have been known to journey to the southeast of England expressly for the purpose of gazing at Mr. Kipling's coast-house at Burwash, at Henry James' house at Rye, or at Ellen Terry's cottage at Winchester.

Memories of Shelley, Byron, Browning and Landor crop up every once and again in the Italian tour by road or rail, but how many who have made the entrance to Italy via the Riviera gateway have ever cast an eye on the modest little Chateau des Pins abutting on the Route d'Italie at Cap Martin, just after Monte Carlo, and before Menton is reached? Not many, doubtless. It is here that Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, the co-authors of the first and only automobile novel, have their winter rest house. How many good things in automobile fiction have been thought out and worked up here! This little corner of the Cote d'Azur has then a very welcome shrine for the literary motor pilgrim.

GOOD ADVICE FOR THE YOUNG

And for the Matter of That, It Is Worth Heeding by "Children of Larger Growth."

"Strike the knot," said a man one day to his son, who, tired and weary, was leaning on his ax over a log which he had been trying to cleave. Then, looking at the log, the gentleman saw how the boy had hacked and chipped all around the knot without hitting it. Taking the ax, he struck a few sharp blows on the knot and split the log without difficulty. Smiling, he returned the ax to his son, saying:

"Always strike the knot." That was good advice. It is as good for you as it was to the boy to whom it was first given. It is a capital maxim to follow when you are in trouble. Have you a hard sum to do at school? Have you got to face a difficulty? Are you leaving home to live for the first time among strangers? Strike the knot. Look your trouble in the eye, as the bold hunter looks in the face of the lion. Never shrink from a painful duty, but step right up to it and do it. Yes, strike the knot. Strike the knot, boys and girls, and you will always conquer your difficulties.—Montreal Herald.

Rooks' Hatred of Crows.
A curious incident in the recent history of the Gray's Inn settlement of rooks is mentioned by a London correspondent.

It appears that a couple of carrion crows settled in the gardens and one day it was discovered that the rookery was deserted. The benches, who are particularly proud of their rooks, gave orders for the carrion crows to be destroyed and the gardener prepared arsenic. The crows swallowed them and seemed to grow fatter and healthier. At last strychnine was used and the pair was seen picking at the egg. One of them fell as it flew up to the nest, the other reached the branch, reeled and dropped.

Then a curious thing happened. Not a rook had been seen for weeks at Gray's Inn, but the next day they were all back as though advised by telegram.—Manchester Guardian.

Faithful Unto Death.
A pathetic story of heroic devotion to duty comes from Montreuil-sur-Mer, France. M. Laperce, who was in charge of the lighthouse at Alpreche, near Bologne, was recently taken ill with influenza and had to go to bed. One evening his substitute came to M. Laperce and explained that he was unable to light the lamp, and in view of the grave consequences that the absence of the light might entail, the sick man rose from his bed, and in spite of the snow and wind, made his way to the lighthouse, where after considerable effort he was able to light the lamp. He returned home, but died two days later of cerebral congestion, the result of exposure to the inclement weather. The humble hero would have been entitled to his pension in five years.

Field Mice Work Havoc.
Certain parts of Lanarkshire, Scotland, are at present suffering from a plague of voles or field mice, which have effected much havoc amongst vegetation. Many young trees in plantations have been destroyed, and various kinds of flower plants have suffered considerably. It is thought that mild winters may partly account for these plagues of voles. The last serious visitation was about seventeen years ago, when great damage was done on the farms in the south of Scotland, and a royal commission was appointed to investigate the matter. It is believed that the main reason of the trouble lies in the fact that the balance of nature has been upset by the destruction of owls, hawks, weasels and stoats, which are the natural enemies of the voles.

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS.

Newport News People Should Know How to Read and Heed Them.

Sick kidneys give many signals of distress. The secretions are dark, contain a sediment. Passages are frequent, scanty, painful. Backache is constant day and night. Headache and dizzy spells are frequent. The weakened kidneys need quick help. Don't delay! Use a special kidney remedy.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, backache and urinary disorders. Newport News evidence proves this statement. Mrs. Chas. Graham, formerly living at 2503 Washington avenue, Newport News, Va., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as being a remedy that acts up to representations. Several members of my family, as well as myself, used them and the results were satisfactory. I used them first when living in Detroit, Mich. At that time I suffered from kidney complaint, backache and pains through my loins. I tried many remedies, but did not succeed in finding relief until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. The results of their use were highly satisfactory and I know of many others who have taken them and derived just as much benefit."

CANDIDATE'S CARDS.

To the Citizens of Newport News, Virginia:

At the coming primary election to be held in this city under the auspices of the City Democratic party for the purpose of nominating a candidate for High Constable of this city, I shall be a candidate for the office. I do not think I need any introduction to the citizens of Newport News, and if I should be honored with your votes and influence, and be the successful candidate of my party, I shall endeavor, if elected to the office in the general election, to honestly and conscientiously fulfill the duties of the same. Respectfully,
ERNEST C. COX.

To the Citizens of Newport News: I am a candidate for the office of High Constable, subject to the Democratic primary, June 12th, 1906. If nominated and elected I will endeavor to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability. Very respectfully,
C. R. BLASSENHAM.

CANDIDATES CARDS.

W. E. BARRETT

For Re-Election to the Legislature.

Your present representative seeks this endorsement for his record and experience in session 1906-8. Mass meetings with prominent speakers on Monday night 8 p. m., Rosenbaum Hall, Levenson Hall, Jefferson avenue, Thursday night same hour.

To the Democratic Voters of the City of Newport News:

I announce my candidacy for Sergeant of the City. Primary to be held June 12, 1906. Since I have been Sergeant of the City, I have endeavored to do my duty honestly and efficiently. I shall appreciate the support of the people.

To the Democratic Voters of Newport News:

W. P. BALLARD, a pioneer, presents his kindest regards to the citizens and Democratic voters of this city, grown from a Hamlet to its present environment, whose record as a man and an official is before you. Now, after receiving the pledges and encouragement of many of my friends and acquaintances, I ask you to vote for me for the office of High Constable in the Democratic primary, and in doing this I am a winner. If elected I promise to do my duty and make you a clean officer.

To the voters of the City of Newport News:

I am offering myself as a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney at the next democratic primary, and if consistent with your duty, you can give me your support, I shall promise you if elected to serve all faithfully, fearlessly and conscientiously.

Your obedient servant,

Imo. T. J. CHRISTIAN.

To the Voters of Newport News: I had the honor to represent the city of Newport News and the counties of Warwick, York, New Kent, Charles City and James City, in the Legislature which convened on December 4, 1901, and was in session until April 2, 1902 (a period of four months).

This same Legislature was re-assembled in Extra Session on July 15, 1902 (by call of the Governor), for the purpose of putting into effect the new Constitution of Virginia.

We were in actual extra session for a period of eight (8) months during the years 1902-3-4, and in the meantime, I was re-elected in November, 1903, without opposition, to represent the City of Newport News in the next General Assembly (the Legislature of 1901 having redistricted the State, and given the five (5) counties a separate member of the House of Delegates).

The "Extra Session" expired, by adjournment, sine die, on January 12, 1904, and the succeeding Legislature convened on the following day, January 13, 1904.

On March 3rd, 1904, I was granted an indefinite sick leave of absence, on account of severe attack of grippe, which confined me to my room until March 11th, on which day I resumed my duties in Richmond until final adjournment on March 15th.

The General Assembly, having completed its work and having adjourned sine die, with no probability of being called back in extra session, I resigned my seat, principally, on a count of poor health. Many of my friends, I have no doubt, recall this fact.

Now, I am again seeking election as your representative in the next House of Delegates, and beg to say, that, having represented our City for a period aggregating more than fourteen (14) months during the four years 1901-2-3 and 4, I feel that my knowledge, experience and influence, acquired during my long association with my fellow members of the General Assembly (many of whom are "still in the harness") left me fairly well equipped, to again, look after the interests of our City, in an intelligent and faithful manner.

Therefore, I have decided to enter the Democratic Primary on June 12th next, as a candidate for nomination to the next House of Delegates.

I will gratefully appreciate your vote and support.

Most respectfully,

5-7-1f. I. P. STEARNES.

To the Voters of Newport News:

I shall greatly appreciate your support for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney subject to the Democratic primary. Since occupying this office I have endeavored to discharge my duties faithfully, and I hope that my efforts will be accorded your approval at the polls. Respectfully,
CHARLES C. BERKELEY.
